

The fact that the CBA is challenging Indiana's telephone privacy law shows there lack of concern for the publics privacy. When someone signs up on the list it would be an indication to most that they would prefer not to be bothered at home during dinner, family time, etc. Please do what you can to protect our privacy and not allow businesses to solicit if they are requested not to, as done with the no call list.